

Our Children Are Our Future
By Joe D, New York

Our children and our future
They are one and the same
If our children fail
We are to blame
But if we love them
And guide them
From morning till night
I can almost assure you
Our future will be bright.